Explanatory Notes

(This note is not part of the Rules or amendments but is intended to indicate their general purport).

Amendment No. 1.—As a consequence of the extension of the Estate Duty Act, 1953, to the State of Jammu & Kashmir by the Taxation Laws (Extension to Jammu & Kashmir) Act, 1954, sub-rule (e) of rule 2 is no longer necessary.

Amendment No. 2.—Under the original sub-rule (6) of Rule 14, 20 times the annual value as assessed for the purpose of land revenue is ordinarily to be taken as the basis of valuation of agricultural land for purposes of estate duty. The amendment seeks to avoid under-valuation of any agricultural land where value ascertained on this basis has no relation to the present market value of the land.

Amendment No. 3.—The idea behind this amendment is that a copy of the Memorandum of appeal will be available for transmission to the Controller of Estate Duty concerned for his report which will invariably be necessary before deciding the appeal filed before the Board under Section 63 of the Estate Duty Act, 1953.

Amendments Nos. 4, 5, 7 and 8.—The rules as originally framed referred to insurance policies issued by insurance companies only. Since Postal Life Insurance Policies can also be taken out or assigned under Section 33(1)(f) of the Estate Duty Act, 1953, these amendments have been made to cover policies issued by any insurer.

Amendment No. 6.—This new rule has been framed because it is the practice of insurance companies to insist on the production of the policy before the claim is met. While under sub-rule (1) of this rule all cases will come to the notice of the Department where the policies referred to therein have been taken out or assigned to the President of India, sub-rule (2) will facilitate settlement of the claim on the policy when it arises.

Amendment No. 9.—Particulars furnished under sub-rule (1) of rule 35 will be helpful in maintaining a record of the policies referred to therein and those furnished under sub-rule (2) will enable the Controllers of Estate Duty to initiate necessary enquiries with a view to finding out whether the estate of the deceased is likely to attract estate duty.

Amendment No. 10.—(i) As rules 29 and 29A do not apply to statutory corporations, the new rule 36 has been framed. This rule lays down the same particulars which have to be furnished by companies formed and registered under the Indian Companies Act, 1913.

(ii) The particulars furnished under the new rule 37 will enable the Controller to make necessary enquiries to find out whether the estate of the deceased is liable to estate duty.

Trustees of Provident Funds and Superannuation Funds are also persons accountable under Section 53(1)(b) of the Estate Duty Act for estate duty in respect of the sums standing to the credit of the deceased member participating in the Fund. Before paying the amount to the legal heirs of the deceased, the Trustees would, therefore, insist in appropriate cases, on the production of a certificate from the Controller to the effect that the duty has been paid or will be paid or that none is due as the case may be. The particulars furnished under this rule would also ensure prompt action on the part of the Controller to settle the estate duty liability of the deceased.

Amendment No. 11.—(i) (a) Provides space for addresses of the accountable persons submitting the accounts.

(b) Adds the figures and brackets '(12)' which refer to item (vii) (a) below.

(ii), (iii), (iv), (v) & (vi). These amendments seek to exclude lease-hold property from the account of movable property and to include the same in the account of immovable property.

(vii) (a) inserts a new note drawing attention to the fact that the declaration at page 3 of the Form of account E.D.1 which is in the nature of an affidavit is liable to a stamp duty.

(b) This amendment clarifies that the proceeds of insurance policies taken out or assigned to the Government for payment of estate duty and/or sums deposited for the same purpose shall not exceed Rs. 50,000 in the aggregate. This amendment is based on the amendments made in clauses (f) and (g) of sub-section (1) of Section 33 of the Estate Duty Act, 1953, by Section 4 of the Finance Act, 1954.

Amendment No. 12.—(i) Certificate in Form ED. 3 may issue in one of the three forms, namely:—

- (a) full estate duty has been paid; or
- (b) full estate duty will be paid; or
- (c) none is due.

Where a certificate is issued in form (c), this amendment substitutes the words "no estate duty" for the word "none" so as to make the meaning clear.

This amendment clarifies that the certificate under Section 60 of the Estate Duty Act, 1953, does not release the property mentioned therein from the charge created under Section 74 of the Act.

Amendment No. 13.—Adds the letters 'G.I.R. No.' which is an abbreviation for "General Index Register No." for the purpose of official reference.

Amendment No. 14.—The "Assessment/Refund Form" has been revised mainly for the purpose of collecting useful data and compiling essential statistics from the form itself without any fundamental changes.
